Let's cut your hair a bit...
Let me know if it's too tight or hurts otherwise.
Sure... Thank you...
... Okay.
After the bath, we had dinner together with Anne and Mone. Reszurre's scars were looking better than ever before, and the only thing I could do was keep applying salve to them and hope they'd heal a little bit more. At the very least, she definitely didn't look like her pitiful old self anymore.
The left side of her face had gotten considerably better as well, and to protect that sunken left eye, I made her an eyepatch out of elephant whale skin. This also removed the need to hide her face under long hair, so we cut her bangs short. Reszurre now looked normal enough to not draw much attention in the town.
